

Vande Moortel Clay Paver Award 2018/2019- Contest rules

Vande Moortel Clay Paver Award 2018/2019 is organized by Brickworks Vande Moortel, Scheldekant 5 Oudenaarde 9700 België.

1. Who can participate? The Clay Paver Award Vande Moortel is for all kind of projects designed and/or created by professionals with clay pavers of Brickworks Vande Moortel executed after January 2015.
2. How to take part? Send your design, a brief statement and some pictures supporting your entry to news@vandemoortel.be. To support your entry, you can tweet, pin or Instagram with #claypaverawards.
3. When is the deadline to send projects? The entries close at the end of July 2019.
4. What are the distinct categories?
 - Small projects: for private projects, smaller than 250 m² using clay pavers
 - Medium and large projects: for private projects, bigger than 250 m² using clay pavers
 - Contemporary projects: for all modern and contemporary designs using clay pavers (indoor and outdoor)
 - Public and publicly accessible projects: for all public or publicly accessible projects using clay pavers
5. The top 3 of each category receives:
 - A unique customized reward
 - Media coverage and visibility on our website, social media, newsletter...

The gold winner of each category receives:

- A cheque of € 1500
- A city trip in the historical centre of Ghent for two people including a dinner in a renowned restaurant.

All entries will be given the attention that they deserve.

6. Can designers participate with several categories? Yes, but each project can only be entered once.

7. A panel of international leading landscape design connoisseurs will pick a winner out of each category.
 - Peter Vande Moortel (CEO Brickworks Vande Moortel)
 - Herman van den Bossche (Deputy Chairman of the Belgian federation of garden and landscape architects)
 - Martin Wirtz from Wirtz International
 - John Wyer from Bowles & Wyer
 - Ben Kuipers (Ir. Landscape Architect, President of the NVTL and Advisor for Landscape for 'Chief Government Architect of the Netherlands')

8. The announcement of the winners:
 - Deadline entries: at the end of June 2019
 - Announcement of the winners: during October 2018 in the new headquarters in Oudenaarde, Belgium

9. Privacy
The material sent in will be made available to Steenbakkerij Vande Moortel and may be used in company communications.